AREA, CLIMATE AND CULTURE:

Yobe State is one of the nine States created by the Babangida Administration on the 27th of August, 1991 with Damaturu as the State Capital. It was carved out of the former Borno State. It has seventeen Local Government Areas and three senatorial districts. The State is located on latitude 11o N and Longitude 13.5o E with a total land area of 47,153 sq. km. The vegetation of the State is generally savannah grassland. It is Sahel in the north and savannah to the south. It shares common boundaries with Borno State to the East and South-east, Jigawa State to the North-West, Bauchi and Gombe States to the South-West. It also shares an international border with the Niger republic to the North. The population of the State stands at 2.321 million as per the March 2006 National Population Census.

The Climate of the State is hot and dry for the most part of the Year in the Northern part. In the Southern part, especially in Gujba and Fika Local Government Areas, it is a bit mild. The hottest months is April to June with temperature ranging from 39 - 40 degrees centigrade.

The duration of the rainy season in the State varies from place to place, but is generally about 120 days in the North and more than 140 days in the South.

Yobe State has a rich and diverse historical and cultural heritage. The major ethnic groups in the State are Kanuri, Bolewa, Manga, Fulani, Karai-karai, Bade, Ngizim, Hausa, Ngamo, Maga, Babur and other ethnic groups from other parts of the country. The official language in the State is English. Large proportions of population of the State are farmers. Livestock rearing, fishing and trading are also major occupations. The people of the State are famous for the Durbar. The Durbar provides a forum for traditional leaders to discuss issues of common interest. The Durbar is organized on important occasions like sallah festivals, turbaning ceremonies and honouring of important visitors. An annual fishing festival which takes place in Jakusko Local Government Area is another cultural heritage of the State.

THE ECONOMY

Yobe State has no single cosmopolitan city, but only five medium sized towns with significant commercial activities. The state is endowed with vast agricultural and mineral resources that are yet to be maximally exploited. Yobe State is generally agrarian with more than 80% of the citizens engaged in small scale subsistence farming.

Food crops such as millet, sorghum, beans and maize are grown by small scale farmers to generate household income for livelihood. Cash crops that are commonly grown include groundnut, sesame and berry seed. Tree crops such as gum- arabic that has potential for export are also being produced in the State. The State is noted to be the largest producer of gum-arabic in Nigeria.

A significant proportion of the population is pastoralists rearing livestock such as cattle, sheep, goats, donkeys and horse at commercial level.

The State has some of the largest cattle markets in West Africa. It supplies meat, hides and skin particularly to the southern part of the country. Thus, the State has the potential to be not only an agricultural base of the country but also a net foreign exchange earner. The major business centres in the State includes Potiskum, Nguru, Gashua, Geidam and Damaturu. However informal trading flourishes among communities in the State.

MINERAL RESOURCES

Yobe State has not only agriculture potentials. It is also blessed with a number of solid minerals. The solid minerals that have been proven to exist in commercial quantity in the State include livestock, kaolin, diatomite, gypsum, clay sahel, trona, sandstone, silica sand and granite. These solid minerals have remained largely unexplored although illegal miners are making a fortune out of them. Thus, investment in solid mineral exploration could transform the economic fortune of the State by creating job opportunities for the population and attract investors to the State.

INFRASTRUCTURE

The provision of basic infrastructure has been a cardinal policy of the Yobe State Government. Although progress in this effort has been resource constrained, significant progress has been made particularly since the advent of the current democratic dispensation in 1999. Damaturu, the State capital has witnessed significant improvements in road networks, electrification, improvement of water supply and establishment of schools and hospitals among others. Private sector managed telephone companies including MTN, GLO, Airtel among others provide GSM networking coverage in the State.
